A decision shall, in any case, be taken within 12 months of the receipt of the application, otherwise the absence of a decision implies a refusal. The decision may be referred to the administrative court [tribunal administratif] which deals with the substance of the case. The case shall be filed within one month, or else shall be time-barred.

 - (b) the operation of payment systems, without prejudice to Article 57;
 - (c) business activities other than the provision of payment services, having regard to applicable “EU”⁵ and Luxembourg law.
- (2) When payment institutions engage in the provision of one or more of the payment services, they may only hold payment accounts used exclusively for payment transactions. Any funds received by payment institutions from payment service users with a view to the provision of payment services shall not constitute a deposit or other repayable funds within the meaning of Article 2(3) of the law of 5 April 1993 on the financial sector, as amended, or electronic money within the meaning of Article 1, point (29), of the present Law.
- (3) Payment institutions may only grant credits related to payment services referred to in points (4), (5) or (7) of the Annex of this Law if all of the following conditions are met:
 - (a) the credit shall be ancillary and granted exclusively in connection with the execution of a payment transaction;
 - (b) the credit granted in connection with a payment and executed in accordance with Article 23(1) and Article 24(1) of this Law shall be repaid within a short period which shall in no case exceed twelve months;

- (1) Authorisation is subject to the production of evidence of the existence in Luxembourg of the central administration and the registered office of the institution to be authorised.
- (2) Taking into account the need to ensure the sound and prudent management of a payment institution, payment institutions shall dispose for the performance of payment services, of a robust internal governance arrangement, which includes a clear organisational structure with well defined, transparent and consistent lines of responsibility, effective processes to identify, manage, monitor and report the risks they are or might be exposed to, and adequate internal control mechanisms, including sound administrative and accounting procedures, as well as control and security arrangements for information processing systems.

The arrangement, processes and mechanisms shall be comprehensive and proportionate to the nature, scale and complexity of the payment services provided by the payment institution.

⁵ Law of 21 December 2012

- (3) Where a payment institution provides one or more payment services and, at the same time, is engaged in other business activities, the CSSF may require the establishment of a separate entity for the payment services business, where the non-payment services activities of the payment institution impair or are likely to impair either the financial soundness of the payment institution or the ability of the CSSF to control the payment institution's compliance with the obligations laid down by this Law.
- (4) Each payment institution intending to outsource operational functions of payment services shall inform the CSSF in advance.

Outsourcing of important operational functions may not be undertaken in a way such as to materially impair the quality of payment institutions' internal control, and the ability of the CSSF to control payment institutions' compliance with all obligations laid down in this Law.

For the purposes of the previous subparagraph, an operational function shall be considered as important if a defect or failure in its performance is likely to impair the continuing compliance of a payment institution with the requirements of its authorisation requested under this Law, or its financial performance, or the soundness or the continuity of its payment services.

In case payment institutions outsource important operational functions, they have to comply with the following conditions:

- (a) the outsourcing must not result in a delegation by the senior management of the payment institution of its responsibilities;
 - (b) neither the relationship of the payment institution with its payment service users, nor the obligations of the payment institution towards its payment service users under this Law shall be altered;
 - (c) the conditions with which the payment institution has to comply in order to be authorised and to remain so in accordance with this chapter shall not be undermined; and
 - (d) none of the other conditions subject to which the payment institution's authorisation was granted shall be removed or modified.
- (5) When a payment institution intends to provide payment services through one or more agents, it shall notify in advance the CSSF thereof and comply with the obligations under Article 18.
 - (6) Any change to the structural organisation of the payment institution, including, where applicable, the intended use of agents and branches or outsourcing arrangements shall first be notified to the CSSF. Without prejudice to Article 22, the CSSF may object to a proposed change of the organisational structure if this change impairs the CSSF's ability to control compliance by the payment institution with all the obligations arising from this Law.

The payment institution shall also inform in advance the CSSF of any intended participation in a national or international payment system.

Article 12 – Shareholders

- (1) Authorisation shall be subject to communication to the CSSF of the identity of the shareholders or members, whether direct or indirect, whether natural or legal persons, that have qualifying holdings in the institution to be authorised and of the amounts of those holdings, in accordance with Article 8, point (h).

Authorisation shall be refused if, taking into account the need to ensure the sound and prudent management of the payment institution, the suitability of those shareholders or members is not satisfactory.

- (2) Where close links exist between the payment institution to be authorised and other natural or legal persons, the authorisation shall only be granted if those links do not prevent the CSSF from effectively exercising its supervisory functions.
- (3) Authorisation shall only be granted if the laws, regulations or administrative provisions of a third country governing one or more natural or legal persons with which the payment institution has close links or if difficulties related to the application of these provisions do not prevent the CSSF from effective exercise of its supervisory functions.
- (4) Any natural or legal person who proposes to hold, directly or indirectly, a qualifying holding in a payment institution shall inform in advance the CSSF and communicate the size of the intended holding.

- (5) The CSSF shall have a maximum of three months from the date of the notification laid down in the previous paragraph to oppose such undertaking if, in view of the need to ensure sound and prudent management of the payment institution, the CSSF is not satisfied as to the suitability of the person referred to in the previous paragraph. In case there is no opposition, the CSSF may fix a maximum period for the implementation of the undertaking as described in the previous paragraph. Where a holding is acquired despite the opposition of the CSSF, the latter may suspend the exercise of the relevant voting rights or ask for the nullity of the votes cast or the possibility of their annulment without prejudice to any other sanctions to be adopted.
- (6) Any natural or legal person proposing to hold, directly or indirectly, a qualifying holding in a payment institution shall first inform the CSSF and communicate the size of the intended holding.
- (7) Payment institutions shall notify the CSSF on becoming aware of any qualifying acquisitions or disposals in their capital.

Article 13 – Professional standing and experience

- (1) The authorisation is subject to the condition that the members of the administrative, management and supervisory bodies and the shareholders or members referred to in the previous article, produce evidence of their professional standing. Where a payment institution undertakes non-payment services in accordance with Article 10(1), point (c), the professional standing of the persons responsible for the management of the payment services activities of the payment institution shall also be assessed.

Such standing shall be assessed on the basis of police records and of any evidence tending to show that the persons concerned are of good standing and are offering a guarantee of irreproachable conduct.

- (2) The persons responsible for the management of payment institutions which undertake business activities other than the provision of payment services in accordance with Article 10(1), point (c), shall be competent to effectively direct the business. These persons shall possess an adequate professional experience by having previously exercised similar activities at a high level of responsibility and autonomy.

Where payment institutions undertake business activities other than the provision of payment services in accordance with Article 10(1), point (c), the professional experience of the persons responsible for the management of the payment services activities of the payment institution shall also be assessed. These persons shall be competent to effectively direct the business of the payment services activities.

- (3) Any change in the persons as referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be communicated in advance to the CSSF. The CSSF may request any information as may be necessary regarding the persons who may be required to fulfil the legal requirements with respect to professional standing and experience. The CSSF shall refuse the proposed change if these persons show insufficient professional standing and, where applicable, insufficient experience or where there are objective and demonstrable grounds for believing that the proposed change would pose a threat to the sound and prudent management of the payment institution. The decision of the CSSF may be referred to the administrative court [tribunal administratif] which deals with the substance of the case. The case shall be filed within one month, or else shall be time-barred.

Article 14 – Safeguarding requirements of funds

- (1) A payment institution which undertakes business activities other than the provision of payment services in accordance with Article 10(1), point (c), shall safeguard funds which have been received from the payment service users or through another payment service provider for the execution of payment transactions, as follows:
 - (a) they shall not be commingled at any time with the funds of any person other than payment service users on whose behalf the funds are held and, where they are still held by the payment institution and not yet delivered to the payee or transferred to another payment service provider by the end of the business day following the day when the funds have been received, they shall be deposited in a separate account in a credit institution or invested in secure, liquid low-risk assets as defined by the CSSF. The funds thus segregated shall not form part of the payment institution's own assets and shall be deducted, in the interests of the payment service users, against the claims of other creditors of the payment institution. In case of insolvency, bankruptcy or in any other situation of equal ranking, the funds are not part of the mass of the payment institution's assets. The assets held in securities accounts or in cash accounts in the name of the payment institutions with a Luxembourg depository and identified by the depository as assets of clients of these payment institutions, can neither, with the consequence of nullification, be used as a guarantee by the payment institution to cover its obligations or those of third parties, nor be seized whether by creditors of the payment institution or creditors of their clients;

- (b) these funds shall be covered by an insurance policy or some other comparable guarantee from an insurance company or a credit institution, which does not belong to the same group as the payment institution itself, for an amount equivalent to the amount which would have been segregated in the absence of the insurance policy or other comparable guarantee, payable in the event that the payment institution is unable to meet its financial obligations.
- (2) Where a payment institution is required to safeguard funds under paragraph (1) and a portion of those funds is to be used for future payment transactions with the remaining amount to be used for non-payment services, that portion of the funds to be used for future payment transactions shall also be subject to the requirements under paragraph (1). Where that portion is variable or is unknown in advance, the CSSF may allow payment institutions to apply this paragraph on the basis of a representative portion of the funds assumed to be used for payment services provided such a representative portion can be reasonably estimated on the basis of historical data to the satisfaction of the CSSF.
 - (3) Subject to the CSSF's prior approval, payment institutions may also apply the requirements laid down in paragraphs (1) and (2) on payment service users whose funds individually exceed a threshold of EUR 600.
 - (4) A payment institution intending to change its method for the purposes of paragraph (1), shall first obtain the consent of the CSSF.

Article 15 – Initial capital

- (1) Where a payment institution only provides the payment service listed in point (6) of the Annex, authorisation is conditional on the production of evidence showing the existence of an initial capital of not less than EUR 20,000.
- (2) Authorisation shall be conditional on the production of evidence showing the existence of an initial capital of not less than EUR 50,000 where a payment institution provides the payment service listed in point (7) of the Annex.
- (3) Authorisation shall be conditional on the production of evidence showing the existence of an initial capital of not less than EUR 125,000 where a payment institution provides the payment services listed in points (1) to (5) of the Annex.
- (4) The initial capital referred to in the preceding paragraphs is made up from the following elements:
 - (a) subscribed and paid up capital;
 - (b) share premium accounts;
 - (c) reserves within the meaning of the law of 19 December 2002 concerning the trade and companies register, as well as the accounting and annual accounts of companies, as amended, including the revaluation reserve and profits brought forward, net of advances on the distribution of reserves and profits brought forward.
- (5) Notwithstanding the requirements of this article, the CSSF is entitled to take steps described under Article 31(4) to ensure sufficient capital for payment services, in particular where the non-payment services activities of the payment institution impair or are likely to impair the financial soundness of the payment institution.

Article 16 – Own funds

- (1) A payment institution's own funds may not fall below the amount of initial capital required under Articles 15 and 17, whichever the higher.

In the event that an institution's own funds fall below that amount, the CSSF may, if the circumstances so warrant, fix a time-limit within which the payment institution must either regularise its situation or cease carrying on its business.

- (2) Own funds within the meaning of this article are defined in accordance with the Luxembourg provisions transposing Articles 57 to 61, 63, 64 and 66 of Directive 2006/48/EC.

The CSSF sets the detailed modalities for the calculation of own funds.

- (3) The multiple use of elements eligible for the calculation of own funds is prohibited where the payment institution belongs to the same group as another payment institution, credit institution, investment firm, asset management company or insurance company.

This prohibition shall also apply to every payment institution carrying out activities other than the provision of payment services in accordance with Article 10(1), point (c).

The CSSF is empowered to lay down the necessary measures to be taken by the payment institutions in order to prevent the multiple use of elements eligible for the calculation of own funds.

- (4) The CSSF may choose, in individual cases, not to apply Article 17 to a payment institution which is a subsidiary of a Luxembourg credit institution, if the subsidiary is included in the consolidated supervision of this credit institution. Moreover, all of the following conditions shall be satisfied, in order to ensure the adequate distribution of the own funds among the parent undertaking and its subsidiary:
- (a) there is no current or foreseen material practical or legal impediment to the prompt transfer of own funds or repayment of liabilities by the parent undertaking;
 - (b) either the parent undertaking satisfies the CSSF regarding the prudent management of the subsidiary and has declared, with the consent of the CSSF, that it guarantees the commitments entered into by the subsidiary, or the risks in the subsidiary are of negligible interest;
 - (c) the risk evaluation, measurement and control procedures of the parent undertaking cover the subsidiary;
 - (d) the parent undertaking holds more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares in the capital of the subsidiary and/or has the right to appoint or remove a majority of the members of the management body in charge of the subsidiary.
- (5) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraphs (1) to (3), the CSSF is entitled to take the steps described under Article 31(4) to ensure sufficient capital for payment services, in particular where the non-payment services activities of the payment institution impair or are likely to impair the financial soundness of the payment institution.

Article 17 – Calculation of own funds

- (1) Notwithstanding the initial capital requirements set out in Article 15, payment institutions shall hold, at all times, own funds calculated in accordance with one of the following three methods:

Method A

The payment institution's own funds shall amount to at least 10% of its fixed overheads of the preceding year. The CSSF may adjust this requirement in the event of a material change in a payment institution's business since the preceding year. Where a payment institution has not completed a full year's business at the date of the calculation, the requirement shall be that its own funds amount to at least 10% of the corresponding fixed overheads as projected in its business plan, unless an adjustment to that plan is required by the CSSF.

Method B

The payment institution's own funds shall amount to at least the sum of the following elements multiplied by the scaling factor k defined in paragraph (2), where payment volume (PV) represents one twelfth of the total amount of payment transactions executed by the payment institution in the preceding year:

- (a) 4.0% of the slice of PV up to EUR 5 million plus

(a) The relevant indicator is the sum of the following:

- interest income,
- interest expenses,
- commissions and fees received, and
- other operating income.

Each element shall be included in the sum with its positive or negative sign. Income from extraordinary or irregular items may not be used in the calculation of the relevant indicator. Expenditure on the outsourcing of services rendered by third parties may reduce the relevant indicator if the expenditure is incurred from an undertaking subject to supervision under this chapter. The relevant indicator is calculated on the basis of the twelve-monthly observation at the end of the previous financial year. The relevant indicator shall be calculated over the previous financial year. Nevertheless, own funds calculated according to Method C shall not fall below 80% of the average of the previous three financial years for the relevant indicator. When audited figures are not available, business estimates may be used.

(b) The multiplication factor shall be:

- (i) 10% of the slice of the relevant indicator up to EUR 2,5 million;
- (ii) 8% of the slice of the relevant indicator from EUR 2,5 million up to EUR 5 million;
- (iii) 6% of the slice of the relevant indicator from EUR 5 million up to EUR 25 million;

- (b) 0.8 where the payment institution provides the payment service listed in point (7) of the Annex;
- (c) 1.0 where the payment institution provides any of the payment services listed in points (1) to (5) of the Annex.

(3) The CSSF may, based on an evaluation of the risk-management processes, risk loss data base and internal control mechanisms of the payment institution, require the payment institution to hold an amount of own funds which is up to 20% higher than the amount which would result from the application of the method chosen in accordance with paragraph (1), or permit the payment institution to hold an amount of own funds which is up to 20% lower than the amount which would result from the application of the method chosen in accordance with paragraph (1).

(4) The CSSF specifies the modalities of the calculation methods referred to in the previous paragraphs.

(5) The payment institution intending to change its calculation method will first have to obtain the consent of the CSSF.

- (6) Notwithstanding the requirements of this article, the CSSF is entitled to take steps described under Article 31(4) to ensure sufficient capital for payment services, in particular where the non-payment services activities of the payment institution impair or are likely to impair the financial soundness of the payment institution.

Article 18 – Use of agents

- (1) When a payment institution intends to provide payment services through an agent, it shall communicate the following information to the CSSF:

- (3) Before listing the agent in the register, the CSSF may, if it considers that the information provided is incorrect, take further action to verify the information.
- (4) If, after taking action to verify the information, the CSSF is not satisfied that the information provided to it pursuant to paragraph (1) is correct, it shall refuse to list the agent in the register provided for in Article 36.
- (5) If a payment institution wishes to provide payment services in another Member State by engaging an agent, it shall follow the procedures provided for in Article 23. In that case, before the agent may be registered under this Article, the CSSF shall inform the competent authorities of the host Member State of its intention to register the agent in the register provided for in Article 36 and take their opinion into account.
- (6) The CSSF may refuse to register the agent, or may withdraw the registration provided for in Article 36 if already made, if it is informed by the competent authorities of the host Member State that they have reasonable grounds to suspect that, in connection with the intended engagement of the agent, money laundering or terrorist financing within the meaning of Directive 2005/60/EC is taking place or has taken place, or that the engagement of such agent could increase the risk of money laundering or terrorist financing.
- (7) Payment institutions shall ensure that agents acting on their behalf inform payment service users of this fact.

Article 19 – Accounting and statutory audit

- (1) Payment institutions shall draw up their annual accounts and, if appropriate, their consolidated accounts in accordance with the law of 19 December 2002 concerning the trade and companies register, as well as the accounting and annual accounts of companies, as amended, “the law of 10 August 1915 on commercial companies, as amended,”⁶ and Regulation (EC) No 1606/2002 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 19 July 2002 on the application of international accounting standards.
- (2) Unless exempted under the law of 19 December 2002 concerning the trade and companies register, as well as the accounting and annual accounts of companies, as amended, “or under the law of 10 August 1915 on commercial companies, as amended,”⁷ the authorisation shall be conditional on the payment institution having its annual accounts “and, where applicable, its consolidated accounts”⁸ audited by one or more réviseurs d’entreprises agréés (approved statutory auditors). The appointment of such réviseurs d’entreprises agréés (approved statutory auditors) is done by the body responsible for the administration of the payment institution.
- (3) In order to allow the CSSF to effectively exercise its supervisory functions, the payment institutions which undertake business activities other than the provision of payment services in accordance with Article 10(1), point (c), shall provide to the CSSF separate accounting information for payment services and activities listed in Article 10(1), points (a) and (b). This information shall be contained in an audit report set up by a réviseur d'entreprises agréé (approved statutory auditor). The appointment of such réviseur d'entreprises agréé (approved statutory auditor) is done by the body responsible for the administration of the payment institution.

⁶ Law of 21 December 2012

⁷ Law of 21 December 2012

⁸ Law of 21 December 2012

- (4) Any change in the réviseurs d'entreprises agréés (approved statutory auditors) shall be authorised in advance by the CSSF, in accordance with Article 13(3).

Article 20 – Withdrawal of authorisation

- (1) The authorisation is withdrawn where a payment institution:

 - (b) has obtained the authorisation through false statements or any other irregular means;
 - (c) no longer fulfils the conditions for granting the authorisation;
 - (d) would constitute a threat to the stability of the payment system by continuing its payment services business; or

- (3) The withdrawal of an authorisation shall be made public.

- (1) Payment institutions for which the home Member State is a Member State other than Luxembourg, may provide payment services in Luxembourg, either through the establishment of a branch or through the engagement of an agent or the provision of services, provided that their activities are covered by their authorisation.
- (2) If the CSSF suspects that, in connection with the intended establishment of the branch or engagement of the agent, money laundering or terrorist financing within the meaning of Directive 2005/60/EC is taking place or has taken place, or that the establishment of such branch or engagement of such agent could increase the risk of money laundering or terrorist financing, they shall so inform the competent authorities of the home Member State.

Article 22 – Payment institutions having their registered office in a third country

- (1) Payment institutions incorporated in third countries wishing to establish a branch in Luxembourg are subject to the same authorisation rules as payment institutions for which Luxembourg is the home Member State.
- (2) For the purposes of application of the preceding paragraph, compliance by the foreign institution with the required conditions for authorisation shall be assessed.
- (3) The authorisation for an activity which implies that the applicant will hold the funds of the payment services users can only be granted to branches of companies incorporated abroad, if these companies hold own capital which is separate to that of their members. The branch must also have at its permanent disposal endowment capital or a capital base which is equivalent to that required by a Luxembourg person exercising the same activity.
- (4) The professional standing and experience requirement is extended to the persons responsible for the branch. The branch shall also, instead of the condition relating to the central administration, produce evidence of an adequate administrative infrastructure in Luxembourg.

The CSSF shall, within one month of receiving the information, forward it to the competent authority of the host Member State.

- (2) In the event of a change in any of the information communicated in accordance with paragraph (1), the payment institutions shall give written notice of that change to the CSSF at least one month before implementing the change. The CSSF shall inform the competent authority of the host Member State of that change.
- (3) The CSSF may oppose a plan to set up a branch in another Member State or may use its power of suspension laid down in Article 36 if the branch has already been set up in the territory of a different Member State, if it has been informed by the competent authorities of the host Member State that they have reasonable grounds to suspect that, in connection with the intended setting-up of the branch, money laundering or terrorist financing within the meaning of Directive 2005/60/EC is taking place or has taken place, or that the setting-up of such branch could increase the risk of money laundering or terrorist financing.
- (4) Payment institutions shall ensure that branches set up in another Member State acting on behalf of the head office inform payment service users of this fact.

Article 24 – Provision of payment services in another Member State

- (1) Payment institutions for which Luxembourg is the home Member State, wishing to provide payment services for the first time in the territory of another Member State in the form of provision of services shall first inform the CSSF and specify the exact type of payment services they intend to provide.

issue, they may only hold payment accounts used exclusively for payment transactions. Any funds received by electronic money institutions from payment service users with a view to the provision of payment services which are not related to the activity of electronic money issue shall not constitute a deposit or other repayable funds within the meaning of Article 2(3) of the law of 5 April 1993 on the financial sector, as amended, or electronic money within the meaning of Article 1, point (29), of this Law.

Article 24-7 – Central administration and infrastructure

- (1) Authorisation is subject to the production of evidence of the existence in Luxembourg of the central administration and the registered office of the institution to be authorised.
- (2) Taking into account the need to ensure the sound and prudent management of an electronic money institution, electronic money institutions shall dispose, for the performance of electronic money issue and of payment services, of a robust internal governance arrangement, which includes a clear organisational structure with well defined, transparent and consistent lines of responsibility, effective processes to identify, manage, monitor and report the risks they are or might be exposed to, and adequate internal control mechanisms, including sound administrative and accounting procedures, as well as control and security arrangements for information processing systems.

The arrangements, processes and mechanisms shall be comprehensive and proportionate to the nature, scale and complexity of the activities of the electronic money institution.

- (3) Where an electronic money institution is engaged in business activities other than the issue of electronic money and the provision of payment services, the CSSF may require the establishment of a separate entity for the activities related to the electronic money issue and payment service provision, where the activities other than electronic money issue and payment service provision impair or are likely to impair either the financial soundness of the electronic money institution or the ability of the CSSF to control the electronic money institution's compliance with the obligations laid down by this Law.
- (4) Each electronic money institution intending to outsource operational functions related to the issue of electronic money or the provision of payment services shall inform the CSSF in advance.

Outsourcing of important operational functions may not be undertaken in a way such as to materially impair the quality of electronic money institutions' internal control, and the ability of the CSSF to monitor electronic money institutions' compliance with all obligations laid down in this Law.

For the purposes of the previous subparagraph, an operational function shall be regarded as important if a defect or failure in its performance is likely to impair the continuing compliance of an electronic money institution with the requirements of its authorisation requested under this Law, or its financial performance, or the soundness or the continuity of its activity of electronic money issue or payment service provision.

In case electronic money institutions outsource important operational functions, they have to comply with the following conditions:

- a) the outsourcing must not result in a delegation by the senior management of the electronic money institution of its responsibilities;
- b) neither the relationship of the electronic money institution with its electronic money holders and payment service users, nor the obligations of the electronic money institution towards its electronic money holders and payment service users under this Law shall be altered;
- c) the conditions with which the electronic money institution has to comply in order to be authorised and to remain so in accordance with this chapter shall not be undermined; and
- d) none of the other conditions subject to which the electronic money institution's authorisation was granted shall be removed or modified.

- (5) Electronic money institutions may distribute and redeem electronic money through natural or legal persons acting on their behalf. Article 24-17 shall apply where the electronic money institution wishes to distribute electronic money in another Member State by engaging such a natural or legal person.

Notwithstanding the previous subparagraph, electronic money institutions are not authorised to issue electronic money through natural or legal persons acting on their behalf.

For the purpose of applying Chapter 2 of Title II, “intermediaries” shall mean the natural or legal persons distributing and redeeming electronic money on behalf of the electronic money institution.

- (6) When an electronic money institution intends to provide payment services through one or more agents, it shall notify in advance the CSSF thereof.

Electronic money institutions shall be authorised to provide payment services through agents only if the requirements listed in Article 18 are complied with.

The electronic money institutions which provide payment services through agents may also use these agents to distribute and redeem electronic money.

Article 24-17 shall apply where the electronic money institution wishes to provide payment services and distribute and redeem electronic money in another Member State through agents.

- (7) Any change to the structural organisation of the electronic money institution, including, where applicable, the intended use of intermediaries, agents and branches or outsourcing arrangements shall first be notified to the CSSF. Without prejudice to Article 24-16, the CSSF may object to a proposed change of the organisational structure if this change impairs the CSSF's ability to control compliance by the electronic money institution with all the obligations arising from this Law.

The payment institution shall also inform in advance the CSSF of any intended participation in a national or international payment system.

Article 24-8 – Shareholders

- (1) Authorisation shall be subject to communication to the CSSF of the identity of the shareholders or members, whether direct or indirect, whether natural or legal persons, that have qualifying holdings in the institution to be authorised and of the amounts of those holdings, in accordance with Article 24-4, point (h).

Authorisation shall be refused if, taking into account the need to ensure the sound and prudent management of the electronic money institution, the suitability of those shareholders or members is not satisfactory.

- (2) Where close links exist between the electronic money institution to be authorised and other natural or legal persons, the authorisation shall only be granted if those links do not prevent the CSSF from effectively exercising its supervisory functions.
- (3) Authorisation shall only be granted if the laws, regulations or administrative provisions of a third country governing one or more natural or legal persons with which the electronic money institution has close links or if difficulties related to the application of these provisions do not prevent the CSSF from effective exercise of its supervisory functions.
- (4) Any natural or legal person who has taken a decision to acquire or dispose of, directly or indirectly, a qualifying holding within the meaning of Article 1, point (34), in an electronic money institution, or to further increase or reduce, directly or indirectly, its qualifying holding so that the proportion of the capital or of the voting rights held by it would reach, exceed or fall below 20%, 30% or 50%, or so that the electronic money institution would become or cease to be its subsidiary, shall first inform the CSSF in writing of their intention and communicate to the CSSF the contemplated amount of this holding and any relevant information referred to in paragraph (5).
- (5) The CSSF shall make publicly available a list specifying the information that is necessary to carry out the assessment of the notification and that must be provided to it at the time of notification. The information required shall be proportionate and adapted to the nature of the proposed acquirer and the proposed acquisition.
- (6) The CSSF shall have a maximum of three months from the date of the notification laid down in paragraph (4) to oppose such undertaking if, in view of the need to ensure sound and prudent management of the electronic money institution, the CSSF is not satisfied as to the suitability of the person referred to in paragraph (4).

In case there is no opposition, the CSSF may fix a maximum period for the implementation of the undertaking as described in paragraph (4).

- (7) Electronic payment institutions shall notify the CSSF on becoming aware of any qualifying acquisitions or disposals in their capital that cause holdings to exceed or fall below one of the thresholds referred to in paragraph (4).

They shall also, at least once a year, inform the CSSF of the names of shareholders and members possessing qualifying holdings and the sizes of such holdings as shown, for example, by the information communicated at the annual general meetings of shareholders and members or received in accordance with the provisions applicable to companies whose transferable securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market.

- (8) In case the influence exercised by the persons referred to in the first subparagraph of paragraph (1) is likely to be prejudicial to the sound and prudent management of the electronic money institution, the CSSF shall take appropriate measures to put an end to that situation. The CSSF may use its power of injunction or suspension or impose a fine on the persons responsible for the administration or management of the electronic money institution concerned, who act such as to jeopardise the sound and prudent management of the electronic money institution, with a fine ranging from EUR 125 to 12,500.

Where a holding is acquired despite the opposition of the CSSF, the latter may suspend the exercise of the relevant voting rights or ask for the nullity of the votes cast or the possibility of their annulment without prejudice to any other sanctions to be adopted.

The CSSF may take similar measures against natural or legal persons who fail to comply with the obligation to provide prior information, as laid down in this article.

The decision to impose a fine may be referred to the administrative court [tribunal administratif] which deals with the substance of the case. The case shall be filed within one month.

- (9) The obligations laid down in paragraphs (4) and (7) shall not apply to electronic money institutions which carry out one or several activities referred to in Article 24-6(1), point (e).

Article 24-9 – Professional standing and experience

- (1) The authorisation is subject to the condition that the members of the administrative, management and supervisory bodies and the shareholders or members referred to in the previous article, produce evidence of their professional standing. Where an electronic money institution undertakes, in accordance with Article 24-6(1), point (e), business activities other than the issue of electronic money, the professional standing of the persons responsible for the management of the electronic money issue activities of the electronic money institution shall also be assessed.

Such standing shall be assessed on the basis of police records and of any evidence tending to show that the persons concerned are of good repute and are offering a guarantee of irreproachable conduct.

- (2) The persons responsible for the management of an electronic money institution, which does not undertake business activities other than the issue of electronic money in accordance with Article 24-6(1), point (e), shall be competent to effectively direct the business. These persons shall possess an adequate professional experience by having previously exercised similar activities at a high level of responsibility and autonomy.

Where an electronic money institution undertakes, in accordance with Article 24-6(1), point (e), business activities other than the issue of electronic money, the professional experience of the persons responsible for the management of the electronic money issue activities of the electronic money institution shall also be assessed. These persons shall be competent to effectively direct the business of the electronic money issue activities.

- (3) Any change in the persons as referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be communicated in advance to the CSSF. The CSSF may request any information as may be necessary regarding the persons who may be required to fulfil the legal requirements with respect to professional standing and experience. The CSSF shall refuse the proposed change if these persons show insufficient professional standing and, where applicable, insufficient professional experience or where there are objective and demonstrable grounds for believing that the proposed change would pose a threat to the sound and prudent management of the electronic money institution.

The decision of the CSSF may be referred to the administrative court [tribunal administratif] which deals with the substance of the case. The case shall be filed within one month, or else shall be time-barred.

Article 24-10 – Safeguarding requirements for funds

(1) Electronic money institutions shall safeguard the funds that have been received in exchange for electronic money issued according to one of the following two methods:

(a) they shall not be commingled at any time with the funds of any person other than electronic money holders (on whose behalf the funds are held) and shall be deposited in a separate account in a credit institution or invested in secure, low-risk assets. The funds thus segregated shall not form part of the electronic money institution's own assets and shall be deducted, in the interest of the electronic money holders, against the claims of other creditors of the electronic money institution. In case of insolvency, bankruptcy or in any other situation of equal ranking, the funds are not part of the mass of the electronic money institution's assets. The assets held in securities accounts or in cash accounts in the name of the electronic money institutions with a Luxembourg depositary and identified by the depositary as assets of holders of electronic money issued by these electronic money institutions, can neither, with the consequence of nullification, be used as a guarantee by the electronic money institution to cover its obligations or those of third parties, nor be seized whether by creditors of the electronic money institution or creditors of holders of electronic money issued by these electronic money institutions;

(b) these funds shall be covered by an insurance policy or some other comparable guarantee from an insurance company or a credit institution, which does not belong to the same group as the electronic money institution itself, for an amount equivalent to the amount which would have been segregated in the absence of the insurance policy or other comparable guarantee, payable in the event that the electronic money institution is unable to meet its financial obligations.

Funds received in the form of payment by payment instrument need not be safeguarded until they are credited to the electronic money institution's payment account or are otherwise made available to the electronic money institution in accordance with the execution time requirements laid down in the present Law, where applicable. In any event, such funds shall be safeguarded by no later than five business days, as defined in Article 1, point (27), after the issuance of electronic money.

(2) Where an electronic money institution is required to safeguard funds it received in exchange for electronic money that has been issued in accordance with paragraph (1) and a portion of those funds was received in exchange for monetary value that has been issued to be used for future payment transactions with the remaining amount of the monetary value issued in exchange for received funds to be used for non-payment services, that portion of the funds received in exchange for monetary value that has been issued to be used for future payment transaction shall also be subject to the requirements under paragraph (1). Where that portion is variable or is unknown in advance, the CSSF may allow electronic money institutions to apply this paragraph on the basis of a representative portion of the funds assumed to be used for payment services provided such a representative portion can be reasonably estimated on the basis of historical data to the satisfaction of the CSSF.

(3) An electronic money institution intending to change its method for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), shall first inform the CSSF thereof.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (1), secure, low-risk assets are asset items falling into one of the categories set out in Table 1 of point (14) of Annex I to Directive 2006/49/EC for which the specific risk capital charge is no higher than 1.6%, but excluding other qualifying items as defined in point (15) of that Annex.

For the purposes of paragraph (1), secure, low-risk assets are also units in an undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) which invests solely in assets as specified in the first subparagraph.

In exceptional circumstances and with adequate justification, the CSSF may, based on an evaluation of security, maturity, value or other risk element of the assets as specified in the first and second subparagraphs, determine which of those assets do not constitute secure, low-risk assets for the purposes of paragraph (1).

- (5) Article 14 shall apply to electronic money institutions for the activities referred to in Article 24-6(1), point (a), that are not linked to the activity of issuing electronic money.
- (6) For the purposes of paragraphs (1), (2) and (5), the CSSF may determine which method shall be used by the electronic money institutions to safeguard funds.

Article 24-11 – Initial capital

- (1) Authorisation of an electronic money institution is conditional on the production of evidence showing the existence of an initial capital of not less than EUR 350,000.
- (2) The initial capital referred to in paragraph (1) is made up from the following elements:
 - (a) subscribed and paid up capital;
 - (b) share premium accounts;
 - (c) reserves within the meaning of the law of 19 December 2002 concerning the trade and companies register, as well as the accounting and annual accounts of companies, as amended, including the revaluation reserve and profits brought forward, net of advances on the distribution of reserves and profits brought forward.
- (3) Notwithstanding the requirements of this article, the CSSF is entitled to take steps described under Article 31(4) to ensure sufficient capital for the activities related to electronic money issue and payment service provision, in particular where the activities other than those related to electronic money issue and payment service provision of the electronic money institution impair or are likely to impair the financial soundness of the electronic money institution.

Article 24-12 – Own funds

- (1) An electronic money institution's own funds may not fall below the amount of initial capital required under paragraphs (3) and (6) of this article or under Article 24-11.

In the event that an institution's own funds fall below that amount, the CSSF may, if the circumstances so warrant, fix a time-limit within which the electronic money institution must either regularise its situation or cease carrying on its business.

- (2) Own funds within the meaning of this article are defined in accordance with the Luxembourg provisions transposing Articles 57 to 61, 63, 64 and 66 of Directive 2006/48/EC.

The CSSF sets the detailed modalities for the calculation of own funds.

- (3) In regard to the activities referred to in Article 24-6(1), point (a), that are not linked to the issuance of electronic money, the own funds requirements of an electronic money institution shall be calculated in accordance with one of the three methods set out in Article 17(1) and (2). The appropriate calculation method shall be determined by the CSSF.

In regard to the activity of issuing electronic money, the own funds requirements of an electronic money institution shall be calculated in accordance with Method D as set out in paragraph (4) of this article.

Electronic money institutions shall at all times hold own funds that are at least equal to the sum of the requirements referred to in the first and second subparagraphs.

- (4) Method D: The own funds of an electronic money institution for the activity of issuing electronic money shall amount to at least 2% of the average outstanding electronic money.
- (5) Where an electronic money institution carries out any of the activities referred to in Article 24-6(1), point (a), that are not linked to the issuance of electronic money or any of the activities referred to in Article 24-6(1), points (b) to (e), and the amount of outstanding electronic money is unknown in advance, the CSSF shall allow the electronic money institution to calculate its own funds requirements on the basis of a representative portion assumed to be used for the issuance of electronic money, provided such a representative portion can be reasonably estimated on the basis of historical data and to the satisfaction of the CSSF.

Where an electronic money institution has not completed a sufficient period of business, its own funds requirements shall be calculated on the basis of projected outstanding electronic money evidenced by its business plan subject to any adjustment to that plan having been required by the CSSF.

- (6) On the basis of an evaluation of the risk-management processes, of the risk loss databases and internal control mechanisms of the electronic money institution, the CSSF may require the electronic money institution to hold an amount of own funds which is up to 20% higher than the amount which would result from the application of the relevant method in accordance with paragraph (3), or permit the electronic money institution to hold an amount of own funds which is up to 20% lower than the amount which would result from the application of the relevant method in accordance with paragraph (3).
- (7) The multiple use of elements eligible for the calculation of own funds is prohibited where the electronic money institution belongs to the same group as another electronic money institution, payment institution, credit institution, investment firm, asset management company or insurance or reinsurance undertaking.

This prohibition shall also apply to every electronic money institution carrying out activities other than the issuance of electronic money.

The CSSF is empowered to lay down the necessary measures to be taken by the electronic money institutions in order to prevent the multiple use of elements eligible for the calculation of own funds.

- (8) The CSSF may choose, in individual cases, not to apply paragraphs (3) and (4) to an electronic money institution which is a subsidiary of a Luxembourg credit institution, if the subsidiary is included in the consolidated supervision of this credit institution. Moreover, all of the following conditions shall be satisfied, in order to ensure the adequate distribution of the own funds among the parent undertaking and its subsidiary:
 - (a) there is no current or foreseen material practical or legal impediment to the prompt transfer of own funds or repayment of liabilities by the parent undertaking;
 - (b) either the parent undertaking satisfies the CSSF regarding the prudent management of the subsidiary and has declared, with the consent of the CSSF, that it guarantees the commitments entered into by the subsidiary, or the risks in the subsidiary are of negligible interest;
 - (c) the risk evaluation, measurement and control procedures of the parent undertaking cover the subsidiary;
 - (d) the parent undertaking holds more than 50% of the voting rights attaching to the shares in the capital of the subsidiary and/or has the right to appoint or remove a majority of the members of the management body in charge of the subsidiary.
- (9) Notwithstanding the requirements of this article, the CSSF is entitled to take the steps described under Article 31(4) to ensure sufficient capital for the activities related to electronic money issue and payment service provision, in particular where the activities other than those related to electronic money issue and payment service provision of the electronic money institution impair or are likely to impair the financial soundness of the electronic money institution.

Article 24-13 – Accounting and statutory audit

- (1) Electronic money institutions shall draw up their annual accounts and, if appropriate, their consolidated accounts in accordance with the law of 19 December 2002 concerning the trade and companies register, as well as the accounting and annual accounts of companies, as amended, “the law of 10 August 1915 on commercial companies, as amended,”¹⁰ and Regulation (EC) No 1606/2002 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 19 July 2002 on the application of international accounting standards.
- (2) Unless exempted under the law of 19 December 2002 concerning the trade and companies register, as well as the accounting and annual accounts of companies, as amended, “or under the law of 10 August 1915 on commercial companies, as amended,”¹¹ the authorisation shall be conditional on the electronic money institution having its annual accounts “and, where applicable, its consolidated accounts”¹² audited by one or more réviseurs d'entreprises agréés (approved statutory auditors). The appointment of such réviseurs d'entreprises agréés (approved statutory auditors) is done by the body responsible for the administration of the electronic money institution.

- (3) In order to allow the CSSF to effectively exercise its supervisory functions, the electronic money institutions which undertake, in accordance with Article 24-6(1), point (e), business activities other than issuance of electronic money, shall provide to the CSSF separate accounting information for the activity related to issuance of electronic money and the activities listed in Article 24-6(1), points (a) to (d). This information shall be contained in an audit report by a réviseur d'entreprises agréé (approved statutory auditor). The appointment of such réviseur d'entreprises agréé (approved statutory auditor) is done by the body responsible for the administration of the electronic money institution.
- (4) Any change in the réviseurs d'entreprises agréés (approved statutory auditors) shall be authorised in advance by the CSSF, in accordance with Article 24-9(3).

Article 24-14 – Withdrawal of authorisation

- (1) The authorisation is withdrawn where an electronic money institution:
 - (a) does not make use of the authorisation within 12 months, expressly renounces the authorisation or has ceased to engage in business for the preceding six months;
 - (b) has obtained the authorisation through false statements or any other irregular means;
 - (c) no longer fulfils the conditions for granting the authorisation;
 - (d) would constitute a threat to the stability of the payment system by continuing its business of issuance of electronic money; or
 - (e) is no longer able to fulfil its obligations towards its creditors.
- (2) Reasons shall be given for any withdrawal of an authorisation and those concerned shall be informed accordingly.
- (3) The withdrawal of an authorisation shall be made public.
- (4) The decision of the CSSF may be referred to the administrative court [tribunal administratif] which deals with the substance of the case. The case shall be filed within one month, or else shall be time-barred.

Article 24-15 – Electronic money institutions for which the home Member State is a Member State other than Luxembourg

- (1) Electronic money institutions for which the home Member State is a Member State other than Luxembourg, may issue electronic money or provide payment services in Luxembourg, either through the establishment of a branch or through the provision of services.

In addition, these electronic money institutions may:

- distribute and redeem electronic money in Luxembourg through natural or legal persons which act on their behalf, provided that the CSSF is informed in advance by the competent authorities of the home Member State of the electronic money institution in accordance with Article 3(4) of Directive 2009/110/EC; or
 - provide payment services referred to in Article 24-6(1), point (a), in Luxembourg through agents provided that the conditions in Article 17 of Directive 2007/64/EC are met.
- (2) If the CSSF suspects that, in connection with the intended establishment of the branch or engagement of the agent, money laundering or terrorist financing within the meaning of Directive 2005/60/EC is taking place or has taken place, or that the establishment of such branch or engagement of such agent could increase the risk of money laundering or terrorist financing, it shall so inform the competent authorities of the home Member State of the electronic money institution.

Article 24-16 – Electronic money institutions having their registered office in a third country

- (1) Electronic money institutions incorporated in third countries wishing to establish a branch in Luxembourg, are subject to the same authorisation rules as the electronic money institutions incorporated under Luxembourg law.

The branch must also have at its permanent disposal endowment capital or a capital base which is equivalent to that required by a Luxembourg person exercising the same activity.
- (4) The professional standing and experience requirement is extended to the persons responsible for the branch.

The branch shall also, instead of the condition relating to the central administration, produce evidence of an adequate administrative infrastructure in Luxembourg.

Section 3: The setting-up of branches, use of intermediaries or agents and the provision of services in another Member State by electronic money institutions incorporated under Luxembourg law

Article 24-17 – The setting-up of branches and the use of intermediaries or agents in another Member State

The CSSF shall inform the competent authority of the host Member State of that change.
- (3) The CSSF may oppose a plan to set up a branch in another Member State or may use its power of suspension laid down in Article 38 if the branch has already been set up in the territory of a different Member State, if it has been informed by the competent authorities of the host Member State that they have reasonable grounds to suspect that, in connection with the intended setting-up of the branch, money laundering or terrorist financing within the meaning of Directive 2005/60/EC is taking place or has taken place, or that the setting-up of such branch could increase the risk of money laundering or terrorist financing.

Article 24-18 – The pursuit of the activity of issuing electronic money or providing payment services in another Member State

- (1) An electronic money institution incorporated under Luxembourg law, wishing to carry out activities related to issuance of electronic money or provision of payment services for the first time in the territory of another Member State in the form of provision of services, shall first inform the CSSF and specify the exact type of transactions, including the type of payment services, it intends to carry out.

- (4) Where, on account of a suspension ordered pursuant to paragraph (2), an administrative, executive or management body no longer has the minimum number of members prescribed by law or by the articles of association, the CSSF shall fix, by registered letter, the period within which the payment institution, electronic money institution or agent concerned has to provide for the replacement of the suspended persons.
- (5) If, by the end of that period, the suspended persons have not been replaced, they shall be provisionally replaced by persons appointed by the President of the Luxembourg district court [tribunal d'arrondissement] ruling at the request of the CSSF, after the payment institution, electronic money institution or agent in question has been duly heard or called upon. Unless otherwise stipulated by the present Law, payment institutions and electronic money institutions authorised in Luxembourg are subject to the procedures relating to controlled management schemes and bankruptcy in accordance with Book III of the Commercial Code (Code de commerce) and the provisions of the Grand-ducal Regulation of 24 May 1935 supplementing the legislation relating to suspensions of payments, court-approved compositions and arrangements with creditors aimed at preventing bankruptcy and bankruptcy following on from the setting-up of a controlled management scheme.

- (1) Only the CSSF, the payment institution or the electronic money institution can apply to the Tribunal to request a controlled management scheme.
- (2) The reasoned application, duly supported by documentary evidence, shall be lodged with the court registry.
- (3) Where the application is made by the payment institution or electronic money institution, it shall, under penalty of inadmissibility of the application, inform the CSSF prior to bringing the matter before the Tribunal. The court registry certifies the day and time when the application is lodged and immediately informs the CSSF thereof.
- (4) Where the application is made by the CSSF, it shall serve it on the payment institution or electronic money institution by means of service of a process-server. The record of service by process-server is exempt from stamp duty and registration fees and from the formality of registration.
- (5) The lodgement of the application by the payment institution or electronic money institution, or, where it is brought by the CSSF, the service thereof shall automatically bring about, in favour of the payment institution or electronic money institution and pending a final decision on the application, a suspension of all payments by that payment institution or electronic money institution and a prohibition, under penalty of nullification, of all acts other than precautionary measures unless authorised by the CSSF or by any contrary legal provision.
- (6) Payments, transactions and other acts, including those relating to the furnishing by a payment institution or electronic money institution of collateral and the realisation of such collateral, shall be valid and enforceable as against third parties, as against the payment institution, electronic money institution and as against the receivers, provided that such payments, transactions and acts were effected prior to the Tribunal's decision to appoint a judge or were effected without the beneficiary being aware of such appointment.
- (7) The Tribunal shall adjudicate speedily on the application, at a hearing in open court taking place on a date and at a time previously communicated to the parties. If the Tribunal receives observations from the CSSF, and if it considers that it has sufficient information, it shall give its ruling forthwith in open court without hearing the CSSF and the payment institution or electronic money institution. If the CSSF has not submitted observations and the Tribunal considers it necessary, it shall call upon the CSSF and the payment institution or electronic money institution, through the court registry, to appear before it no later than three days after lodgement of the application. It shall hear them in chambers [chambre du conseil] and shall deliver its ruling in open court. The judgment shall state the time at which it was delivered.

It shall be immediately enforceable on the authority of the original thereof, prior to registration and without the furnishing of any security, notwithstanding any appeal.

- (10) The CSSF and the payment institution or electronic money institution may appeal against the judgment within fifteen days from notification thereof in accordance with paragraph (8), by notice of appeal lodged with the court registry. Any such appeal shall be determined as a matter of urgency by one of the chambers of the high court of justice [Cour Supérieure de Justice] dealing with civil and commercial matters. The parties to the appeal shall not be required to appear through counsel. The parties shall be called upon, by the court registry of the high court of justice [Cour Supérieure de Justice], to appear before it within a period not exceeding eight days. The parties shall be heard in chambers [chambre du conseil]. The high court of justice [Cour Supérieure de Justice] shall adjudicate on the application, at a hearing in open court taking place on a date and at a time previously communicated to the parties.

This decision shall not be appealable in cassation (pourvoi en cassation).

- (11) Where any party fails to appear, no application may be brought to set aside the appellate judgment.
- (12) The Tribunal may limit the scope of transactions which are subject to such authorisation. The receiver can submit for deliberation by the bodies of the payment institution or electronic money institution any proposal which they deem expedient.
- (13) Any dispute arising between the bodies of the payment institution or electronic money institution and the receivers shall be determined by the Tribunal upon application by one of the parties. The parties shall be heard in chambers [chambre du conseil]. The decision of the Tribunal is final.
- (14) The CSSF shall automatically act as receiver until the delivery of the first-instance judgment on the application laid down in paragraph (2).
- (15) Upon request by the CSSF, the payment institution, electronic money institution or the receivers, the Tribunal may alter the detailed terms of any first-instance judgment delivered pursuant to this article.
- (16) Any deeds or documents which may enlighten the Tribunal in its consideration of the application may be produced or lodged without needing first to be endorsed with an official stamp and without needing to undergo the formality of registration. Orders, judgments and decisions given in proceedings for controlled management schemes shall be exempt from stamp duties and registration fees.

- (1) Payments, transactions and other acts, including those relating to the furnishing by a payment institution or electronic money institution of collateral and the realisation of such collateral, shall be valid and enforceable as against third parties, as against the payment institution, electronic money institution and as against the receivers, provided that such payments, transactions and acts were effected prior to the Tribunal's decision to appoint a judge or were effected without the beneficiary being aware of such appointment.

- (2) The present Law is without prejudice to the law of 9 August 1993 regulating consumer credits, as amended.

Article 79 – Charges applicable

- (1) The payment service provider may not charge the payment service user for fulfilment of its information obligations or execution of corrective and preventive measures under the present title, unless otherwise specified in Articles 92(1), 93(5) and 100(2). Those charges shall be agreed between the payment service user and the payment service provider and shall be appropriate and in line with the payment service provider's actual costs.

- (2) Where a payment transaction does not involve any currency conversion, the payee pays the charges levied by his payment service provider, and the payer pays the charges levied by his payment service provider.
- (3) No charge may be requested by the payee from the payer for the use of a given payment instrument.

Article 80 – Derogation for low-value payment instruments and electronic money

- (1) In the case of payment instruments which according to the framework contract, solely concern individual payment transactions not exceeding EUR 30 or which either have a spending limit of EUR 150 or store funds which do not exceed EUR 150 at any time, payment service providers may agree with their payment service users that:
 - (a) Article 83(1), point (b), and Article 84(1), points (c) and (d), as well as Article 88(3) and (4) do not apply if the payment instrument does not allow its blocking or prevention of its further use;
 - (b) Articles 86, 87 and Article 88(1) and (2) do not apply if the payment instrument is used anonymously or the payment service provider is not in a position for other reasons which are intrinsic to the payment instrument to prove that a payment transaction was authorised;
 - (c) by way of derogation from Article 92(1), the payment service provider is not required to notify the payment service user of the refusal of a payment order, if the non-execution is apparent from the context;
 - (d) by way of derogation from Article 93, the payer may not revoke the payment order after transmitting the payment order or giving his consent to execute the payment transaction to the payee;
 - (e) by way of derogation from Articles 96 and 97, other execution periods apply.

CHAPTER 2: AUTHORISATION OF PAYMENT TRANSACTIONS

Article 81 – Consent and withdrawal of consent

- (1) A payment transaction is considered to be authorised only if the payer has given consent to execute the payment transaction. A payment transaction may be authorised by the payer prior to or, if agreed between the payer and his payment service provider, after the execution of the payment transaction.
- (2) Consent to execute a payment transaction or a series of payment transactions shall be given in the form agreed between the payer and his payment service provider.

In the absence of such consent, a payment transaction shall be considered to be unauthorised.
- (3) Consent may be withdrawn by the payer at any time, but no later than the point in time of irrevocability under Article 93. Consent to execute a series of payment transactions may also be withdrawn with the effect that any future payment transaction is to be considered as unauthorised.
- (4) The procedure for giving consent shall be agreed between the payer and the payment service provider.

Article 82 – Limits of the use of the payment instrument

- (1) In cases where a specific payment instrument is used for the purposes of giving consent, the payer and his payment service provider may agree on spending limits for payment transactions executed through that payment instrument.
- (2) If agreed in the framework contract, the payment service provider may reserve the right to block the payment instrument for objectively justified reasons related to the security of the payment instrument, the suspicion of unauthorised or fraudulent use of the payment instrument or, in the case of a payment instrument with a credit line, a significantly increased risk that the payer may be unable to fulfil his liability to pay.

- (3) In such cases the payment service provider shall inform the payer of the blocking of the payment instrument and the reasons for it in an agreed manner, where possible, before the payment instrument is blocked and at the latest immediately thereafter, unless giving such information would compromise objectively justified security reasons or is prohibited by other relevant Community or national legislation.
- (4) The payment service provider shall unblock the payment instrument or replace it with a new payment instrument once the reasons for blocking no longer exist.

Article 83 – Obligations of the payment service user in relation to payment instruments

- (1) The payment service user entitled to use a payment instrument shall have the following obligations:
 - (a) to use the payment instrument in accordance with the terms governing the issue and use of the payment instrument; and
 - (b) to notify the payment service provider, or the entity specified by the latter, without undue delay on becoming aware of loss, theft or misappropriation of the payment instrument or of its unauthorised use.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), point (a), the payment service user shall, in particular, as soon as he receives a payment instrument, take all reasonable steps to keep its personalised security features safe.

Article 84 – Obligations of the payment service provider in relation to payment instruments

- (1) The payment service provider issuing a payment instrument shall have the following obligations:
 - (a) to make sure that the personalised security features of the payment instruments are not accessible to parties other than the payment service user entitled to use the payment instrument, without prejudice to the obligations on the payment service user set out in Article 83;
 - (b) to refrain from sending an unsolicited payment instrument, except where a payment instrument already given to the payment service user is to be replaced;
 - (c) to ensure that appropriate means are available at all times to enable the payment service user to make a notification pursuant to Article 83(1), point (b), or request unblocking pursuant to Article 82(4); on request, the payment service provider shall provide the payment service user with the means to prove, for 18 months after notification, that he made such notification; and
 - (d) to prevent all use of the payment instrument once notification pursuant to Article 83(1), point (b), has been made.
- (2) The payment service provider shall bear the risk of sending a payment instrument to the payer or of sending any personalised security features of it.

Article 85 – Notification of unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment transactions

The payment service user shall obtain rectification from the payment service provider only if he notifies his payment service provider without undue delay on becoming aware of any unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment transactions giving rise to a claim, including that under Article 101, and no later than 13 months after the debit date, unless, where applicable, the payment service provider has failed to provide or make available the information on that payment transaction in accordance with Title III.

Article 86 – Evidence on authentication and execution of payment transactions

- (1) Where a payment service user denies having authorised an executed payment transaction or claims that the payment transaction was not correctly executed, it is for his payment service provider to prove that the payment transaction was authenticated, accurately recorded, entered in the accounts and not affected by a technical breakdown or some other deficiency.
- (2) Where a payment service user denies having authorised an executed payment transaction, the use of a payment instrument recorded by the payment service provider shall in itself not necessarily be sufficient to prove either that the payment transaction was authorised by the payer or that the payer acted fraudulently or failed with intent or gross negligence to fulfil one or more of his obligations under Article 83.

Article 87 – Payment service provider's liability for unauthorised payment transactions

- (1) Without prejudice to Article 85, in the case of an unauthorised payment transaction, the payer's payment service provider shall immediately refund to the payer the amount of the unauthorised payment transaction and, where applicable, restores the debited payment account to the state in which it would have been had the unauthorised payment transaction not taken place.
- (2) Further financial compensation may be determined in accordance with the law applicable to the contract concluded between the payer and his payment service provider.

Article 88 – Payer's liability for unauthorised payment transactions

- (1) By way of derogation from Article 87 the payer shall bear the losses relating to any unauthorised payment transactions, up to a maximum of EUR 150, resulting from the use of a lost or stolen payment instrument or, if the payer has failed to keep the personalised security features safe, from the misappropriation of a payment instrument.
- (2) The payer shall bear all the losses relating to any unauthorised payment transactions if he incurred them by acting fraudulently or by failing to fulfil one or more of his obligations under Article 83 with intent or gross negligence. In such case, the maximum amount referred to in paragraph (1) of this article shall not apply.
- (3) The payer shall not bear any financial consequences resulting from use of the lost, stolen or misappropriated payment instrument after notification in accordance with Article 83(1), point (b), except where he has acted fraudulently.
- (4) If the payment service provider does not provide appropriate means for the notification at all times of the loss, theft or misappropriation of a payment instrument, pursuant to Article 84(1), point (c), the payer shall not be liable for the financial consequences resulting from use of that payment instrument, except where he has acted fraudulently.

Article 89 – Refunds for payment transactions initiated by or through a payee

- (1) A payer is entitled to a refund from his payment service provider of an authorised payment transaction initiated by or through a payee which has already been executed, if the following conditions are met:
 - (a) the authorisation did not specify the exact amount of the payment transaction when the authorisation was given; and
 - (b) the amount of the payment transaction exceeded the amount the payer could reasonably have expected taking into account his previous spending pattern, the conditions in his framework contract and relevant circumstances of the case.

At the payment service provider's request, the payer shall provide factual elements relating to these conditions.

The refund consists of the full amount of the executed payment transaction.

For direct debits the payer and his payment service provider may agree in the framework contract that the payer is entitled to a refund from his payment service provider even though the conditions for refund provided for in the first subparagraph are not met.

- (2) However, for the purposes of point (b) of the first subparagraph of paragraph (1), the payer may not rely on currency exchange reasons if the reference exchange rate agreed with his payment service provider in accordance with Articles 66(1), point (d), and 71, point (3) (b), was applied.
- (3) It may be agreed in the framework contract between the payer and the payment service provider that the payer has no right to a refund where he has given his consent to execute the payment transaction directly to his payment service provider and, where applicable, information on the future payment transaction has been provided or made available in an agreed manner to the payer for at least four weeks before the due date by the payment service provider or by the payee.

Article 90 – Requests for refunds for payment transactions initiated by or through a payee

The payment service provider's right under the first subparagraph to refuse the refund shall not apply in the case set out in the last subparagraph of Article 89(1).

CHAPTER 3: EXECUTION OF PAYMENT TRANSACTIONS

Section 1: Payment orders and amounts transferred

Article 91 – Receipt of payment orders

- (1) The point in time of receipt is the time when the payment order transmitted directly by the payer or indirectly by or through a payee is received by the payer's payment service provider. If the point in time of receipt is not on a business day for the payer's payment service provider, the payment order shall be deemed to have been received on the following business day. The payment service provider may establish a cut-off time near the end of a business day beyond which any payment order received shall be deemed to have been received on the following business day.
- (2) If the payment service user initiating a payment order and his payment service provider agree that execution of the payment order shall start on a specific day or at the end of a certain period or on the day on which the payer has set funds at his payment service provider's disposal, the point in time of receipt for the purposes of Article 96 is deemed to be the agreed day. If the agreed day is not a business day for the payment service provider, the payment order received shall be deemed to have been received on the following business day.

Article 92 – Refusal of payment orders

- (1) Where the payment service provider refuses to execute a payment order, the refusal and, if possible, the reasons for it as well as the procedure for correcting any factual mistakes that led to the refusal shall be notified to the payment service user, unless prohibited by other relevant Community or national legislation.

The payment service provider shall provide or make available the notification in an agreed manner at the earliest opportunity, and in any case, within the periods specified in Article 96.

The framework contract may include a condition that the payment service provider may charge for such a notification if the refusal is objectively justified.

- (2) When all the conditions set out in the payer's framework contract are met, the payer's payment service provider shall not refuse to execute an authorised payment order irrespective of whether the payment order is initiated by a payer or by or through a payee, unless prohibited by other relevant Community or national legislation.
- (3) For the purposes of Articles 96 and 101, a payment order of which execution has been refused shall be deemed not to have been received.

Article 93 – Irrevocability of a payment order

- (1) The payment service user may not revoke a payment order once it has been received by the payer's payment service provider, unless otherwise specified in this article.
- (2) Where the payment transaction is initiated by or through the payee, the payer may not revoke the payment order after transmitting the payment order or giving his consent to execute the payment transaction to the payee.
- (3) However, in the case of a direct debit and without prejudice to refund rights the payer may revoke the payment order at the latest by the end of the business day preceding the day agreed for debiting the funds.
- (4) In the case referred to in Article 91(2) the payment service user may revoke a payment order at the latest by the end of the business day preceding the agreed day.
- (5) After the time limits specified in paragraphs (1) to (4), the payment order may be revoked only if agreed between the payment service user and his payment service provider. In the cases referred to in paragraphs (2) and (3), the payee's consent shall also be required. If provided for in the framework contract, the payment service provider may charge for revocation.

Article 94 – Amounts transferred and amounts received

- (1) The payment service provider of the payer, the payment service provider of the payee and any intermediaries of the payment service providers have to transfer the full amount of the payment transaction and refrain from deducting charges from the amount transferred.
- (2) However, the payee and his payment service provider may agree that the payment service provider deduct its charges from the amount transferred before crediting it to the payee. In such a case, the full amount of the payment transaction and charges shall be separated in the information given to the payee.
- (3) If any charges other than those referred to in paragraph (2) are deducted from the amount transferred, the payment service provider of the payer shall ensure that the payee receives the full amount of the payment transaction initiated by the payer. In cases where the payment transaction is initiated by or through the payee, his payment service provider shall ensure that the full amount of the payment transaction is received by the payee.

Section 2: Execution time and value date

Article 95 – Scope

This section shall apply to:

- (a) payment transactions in Euro;
 - (b) national payment transactions in the currency of the Member State outside the Euro area concerned; and

- (2) The present section shall apply to other payment transactions, unless otherwise agreed between the payment service user and his payment service provider, with the exception of Article 99, which is not at the disposal of the parties. However, when the payment service user and his payment service provider agree on a longer period than those laid down in Article 96, for intra-Community payment transactions such period shall not exceed 4 business days following the point in time of receipt in accordance with Article 91.

Article 96 – Payment transactions to a payment account

- (1) The payer's payment service provider shall ensure that, after the point in time of receipt in accordance with Article 91, the amount of the payment transaction is credited to the payee's payment service provider's account at the latest by the end of the next business day. Until 1 January 2012, the payer and his payment service provider may agree on a period no longer than three business days. These periods may be extended by a further business day for paper-initiated payment transactions.
- (2) The payment service provider of the payee shall value date and make available the amount of the payment transaction to the payee's payment account after the payment service provider has received the funds in accordance with Article 99.
- (3) The payee's payment service provider shall transmit a payment order initiated by or through the payee to the payer's payment service provider within the time limits agreed between the payee and his payment service provider, enabling settlement, as far as direct debit is concerned, on the agreed due date.

Article 97 – Absence of payee's payment account with the payment service provider

Where the payee does not have a payment account with the payment service provider, the funds shall be made available to the payee by the payment service provider who receives the funds for the payee within the period specified in Article 96.

Article 98 – Cash placed on a payment account

Where a consumer places cash on a payment account with the payment service provider in the currency of that payment account, the payment service provider shall ensure that the amount is made available and value dated immediately after the point of time of the receipt of the funds. Where the payment service user is not a consumer, the amount shall be made available and value dated at the latest on the next business day after the receipt of the funds.

Article 99 – Value date and availability of funds

- (1) The credit value date for the payee's payment account shall be no later than the business day on which the amount of the payment transaction is credited to the payee's payment service provider's account.

The payment service provider of the payee shall ensure that the amount of the payment transaction is at the payee's disposal immediately after that amount is credited to the payee's payment service provider's account.

- (2) The debit value date for the payer's payment account shall be no earlier than the point in time at which the amount of the payment transaction is debited to that payment account.

Section 3: Liability

- (1) If a payment order is executed in accordance with the unique identifier, the payment order shall be deemed to have been executed correctly with regard to the payee specified by the unique identifier.
- (2) If the unique identifier provided by the payment service user is incorrect, the payment service provider shall not be liable under Article 101 for non-execution or defective execution of the payment transaction.

However the payer's payment service provider shall make reasonable efforts to recover the funds involved in the payment transaction.

If agreed in the framework contract, the payment service provider may charge the payment service user for recovery.

- (3) If the payment service user provides information additional to that specified in Articles 66(1), point (a), or 71, point (2) (b), the payment service provider shall be liable only for the execution of payment transactions in accordance with the unique identifier provided by the payment service user.

- (1) Where a payment order is initiated by the payer, his payment service provider shall, without prejudice to Article 85, Article 100(2) and (3), and Article 104, be liable to the payer for correct execution of the payment transaction, unless he can prove to the payer and, where relevant, to the payee's payment service provider that the payee's payment service provider received the amount of the payment transaction in accordance with Article 96(1), in which case, the payee's payment service provider shall be liable to the payee for the correct execution of the payment transaction.

Where the payer's payment service provider is liable under the first subparagraph, he shall without undue delay refund to the payer the amount of the non-executed or defective payment transaction and, where applicable, restore the debited payment account to the state in which it would have been had the defective payment transaction not taken place.

Where the payee's payment service provider is liable under the first subparagraph, he shall immediately place the amount of the payment transaction at the payee's disposal and, where applicable, credit the corresponding amount to the payee's payment account.

In the case of a non-executed or defectively executed payment transaction where the payment order is initiated by the payer, his payment service provider shall regardless of liability under the present paragraph, on request, make immediate efforts to trace the payment transaction and notify the payer of the outcome.

- (2) Where a payment order is initiated by or through the payee, his payment service provider shall, without prejudice to Article 85, Article 100(2) and (3), and Article 104, be liable to the payee for correct transmission of the payment order to the payment service provider of the payer in accordance with Article 96(3). Where the payee's payment service provider is liable under the present subparagraph, he shall immediately re-transmit the payment order in question to the payment service provider of the payer.

In addition, the payment service provider of the payee shall, without prejudice to Article 85, Article 100(2) and (3), and Article 104, be liable to the payee for handling the payment transaction in accordance with its obligations under Article 99. Where the payee's payment service provider is liable under the present subparagraph, he shall ensure that the amount of the payment transaction is at the payee's disposal immediately after that amount is credited to the payee's payment service provider's account.

In the case of a non-executed or defectively executed payment transaction for which the payee's payment service provider is not liable under the first and second subparagraphs, the payer's payment service provider shall be liable to the payer. Where the payer's payment service provider is so liable he shall, as appropriate and without undue delay, refund to the payer the amount of the non-executed or defective payment transaction and restore the debited payment account to the state in which it would have been had the defective payment transaction not taken place.

In the case of a non-executed or defectively executed payment transaction where the payment order is initiated by or through the payee, his payment service provider shall, regardless of liability under this paragraph, on request, make immediate efforts to trace the payment transaction and notify the payee of the outcome.

- (3) In addition, payment service providers shall be liable to their respective payment service users for any charges for which they are responsible, and for any interest to which the payment service user is subject as a consequence of non-execution or defective execution of the payment transaction.

Article 102 – Additional financial compensation

Any financial compensation additional to that provided for under this section may be determined in accordance with the law applicable to the contract concluded between the payment service user and his payment service provider.

Article 103 – Right of recourse

- (1) Where the liability of a payment service provider under Article 101 is attributable to another payment service provider or to an intermediary, that payment service provider or intermediary shall compensate the first payment service provider for any losses incurred or sums paid under Article 101.
- (2) Further financial compensation may be determined in accordance with agreements between payment service providers and/or intermediaries and the law applicable to the agreement concluded between them.

Article 104 – Absence of liability

Liability under Chapter 2 and 3 of the present title shall not apply in cases of abnormal and unforeseeable circumstances beyond the control of the party pleading for the application of those circumstances, the consequences of which would have been unavoidable despite all efforts to the contrary, or where a payment service provider is bound by other legal obligations covered by national or Community legislation.

Article 111 – Settlement finality in systems referred to in Article 108

- (1) A transfer order can no more be revoked or challenged by a system participant referred to in Article 108 or by a third party from the moment of its introduction to said system. Furthermore, from this moment the compensation can no longer be challenged for whatever reason, notwithstanding any legal, regulatory, contractual or usual provision which provides for the cancellation of contracts and transactions entered into before the opening of an insolvency procedure.

The moment of introduction of the transfer order in a system referred to in Article 108 is defined by the governing rules of said system.

(Law of 20 May 2011)

“In the case of interoperable systems, the system operator authorised in Luxembourg shall consult the system operators of the other systems concerned in order to agree, to the extent possible, on common rules regarding the moment of introduction of a transfer order in the interoperable system and the moment of irrevocability of transfer orders.

Unless expressly provided for by the rules of all the systems that are party to the interoperable systems, the rules of a system authorised in Luxembourg which define the moment of the introduction of a transfer order in said system and the moment of irrevocability of transfer orders shall not be affected by any rule of the other systems with which it is interoperable.”

- (2) Even in case of an insolvency procedure against a participant, the transfer orders and clearing in systems referred to in Article 108 legally operate between parties and are enforceable as against third parties, provided that the transfer orders were introduced to the system before the opening of an insolvency procedure. “This shall apply even in the event of insolvency proceedings against a participant in the system concerned or in an interoperable system or against the system operator of an interoperable system which is not a participant in the system concerned.”³²

“Transfer orders which entered into a system after the moment of opening of insolvency proceedings and carried out within the business day, as defined by the rules of the system, during which the opening of such proceedings occur, shall be legally enforceable and binding on third parties only if the system operator can prove that, at the time that such transfer orders become irrevocable, it was neither aware, nor should have been aware, of the opening of such proceedings.”³³

- (3) An insolvency procedure can only have a retroactive effect on the rights and obligations of participants which derive from their participation in a system or which are linked to such participation, regarding the moment in time of the opening of an insolvency procedure. “This shall apply, inter alia, as regards the rights and obligations of a participant in an interoperable system, or of a system operator of an interoperable system which is not a participant.”³⁴

(Law of 20 May 2011)

Any credit facility of said participant which is linked to the system can be used by way of existing guarantee which is available to fulfil that participant's obligations in the system or in an interoperable system.”

- (5) No settlement account held with a system operator or settlement agent, as well as no transfer, via a credit institution incorporated under Luxembourg law or foreign law to such settlement account, may be seized, sequestered or blocked in any way by a participant (other than the system operator or settlement agent), a counterparty or a third party.
